SOCIAL WELFARE

CARITAS, INDIA (BOMBAY)

Director: Fr. Ralph Fernandes, Eucharistic Congress Building III,
5 Convent Street, Bombay-400 039. Tel.: 21 46 44

Caritas, India, set up in 1961, is the official national organization of the Catholic Bishops' Conference of India and is intended to be an expression of the Church's concern for development, justice and peace. The Headquarters of Caritas, India is located at the CBCI Centre, New Delhi. The organization has diocesan offices all over India. Caritas, India (Bombay) is the Office of the Archdiocese of Bombay.

As a diocesan branch Caritas, India (Bombay) shares the same objectives of the National Office:

- (a) To educate people and make them conscious and concerned about self-reliance, social justice and co-operation, so that they may be prepared to work out for themselves and for others a future in keeping with their own human dignity and destiny.
- (b) To launch sustained campaigns for relief of people affected by disasters, whether natural or otherwise, so that Christian charity may bring solace and effective assistance to the suffering.
- (c) To promote all types of activities aimed at the integral development of persons and communities.
- (d) To help whole communities especially in rural areas to plan and initiate developmental programmes that are suitable to their needs.

- (e) To organize ways and means to promote care of the sick, crippled, handicapped, the destitute and the aged.

In the light of the above objectives, the Bombay branch of Caritas India

- (a) processes project applications prior to recommending them to the Archbishop and keeps a check on post-funded projects.
 (b) organizes campaigns for relief—in times of famine and drought, war, on behalf of refugees, etc.—throughout the Archdiocese.
 (c) collaborates with other organizations—Christian and non-Christian—in programmes for development, justice and peace.

Further, it organizes and conducts the Annual Lenten “Campaign against Hunger and Disease” in the Archdiocese. In closer relationship with the National Office, the Bombay Office (together with those of Calcutta and Madras) acts as the Port Office for the clearance of cargo at the Docks.

Our Lady's Home, 205 Dr. Ambedkar Road, Dadar, Bombay-400 014.

Diocesan.

Tel.: 44 81 35

Our Lady's Home is a Diocesan Institution for boys of all castes, religions and communities. It is a tangible and permanent memorial of the visit of the Pilgrim Virgin, Our Lady of Fatima's statue, in 1950, and of the visit of Pope Paul VI during the 38th International Eucharistic Congress in 1964. Boys between the ages of 6 and 12 are given admission into the Home, and they come:

- (a) through the Juvenile Court, hence court-committed children ; the quota for such children is 40 at present;
- (b) from other Homes in the Archdiocese, especially where the Sisters can take care of the boys only up to the age of about five;
- (c) from homes that have recently lost father, mother or both, and sent by the Parish Priest or by other agencies.

The Home is cared for by a full-time Director and Assistant Director, Seminarians doing their Regency, three Sisters of the Trivandrum Carmelites, a trained Social Worker (MSW) and a House Doctor.
