Performance Pledge
ICAC Mission

With the community, the ICAC is committed to fighting corruption through effective law enforcement, education and prevention to help keep Hong Kong fair, just, stable and prosperous.
This booklet tells you about the Independent Commission Against Corruption’s performance pledge for the services it offers you. It also explains how you can make reports and the steps you can take if you have any comments or complaints about ICAC’s services.

1 Services Covered

- response to a report of corruption
- response to a report which does not involve corruption
- response to a request for corruption prevention advice
- response to a request for preventive education services or information

2 Performance Standards

- a person identifying himself and making a report of corruption will, where necessary, be immediately interviewed. In other cases, we will contact the complainant for interview within 48 hours. He will be advised of the outcome of his report as soon as possible
- a person making a report which does not relate to corruption will be contacted normally within two working days concerning any further referral of his report
- all incoming calls through the hot-line service (2526 6366) or telephone services of the Regional Offices will be handled immediately
- pursuable corruption reports will be professionally and expeditiously investigated and, if possible, completed within 12 months
- a person requesting advice on corruption prevention will be contacted within two working days
- a person requesting preventive education services or information will be contacted within two working days
3 Services Environment

ICAC is committed to providing a prompt, effective and confidential service:

- 24 hours a day at ICAC Report Centre, every day of the year
- 9 a.m. - 7 p.m. Monday to Friday at ICAC’s seven Regional Offices, except public holidays
- 9 a.m. - 6 p.m. Monday to Friday at ICAC’s Advisory Services Group, except public holidays
- members of the public who come in person to the ICAC Report Centre or any of the Regional Offices will be interviewed immediately

5 The Public’s Role

Reporting Corruption

ICAC is heavily dependent on you for success in combating corruption in Hong Kong. ICAC welcomes reports made in good faith concerning suspected corruption. ICAC encourages members of the public, where possible, to identify themselves and make reports in person.

Reports may be made as follows:

* In person to ICAC Report Centre: 24 hours a day at G/F, Murray Road Carpark Building,
  2 Murray Road, Central,
  Hong Kong

* By phone to ICAC hotline: 24 hours a day 2526 6366

* By letter to
  The Commissioner,
  Independent Commission Against Corruption,
  GPO Box 1000,
  Hong Kong
In person, by phone, or by letter, to any of ICAC’s seven Regional Offices:

Hong Kong Island

Request for Preventive Education Services

Members of the public are welcome to approach any of the above Regional Offices for the following preventive education services:

• Training talks and seminars on corruption preventive measures and anti-corruption laws;

• Requests for ICAC preventive education packages; and

• Requests for ICAC teaching packages.
Members of the public are also welcome to approach the Hong Kong Ethics Development Centre which aims to promote business and related ethics in Hong Kong. Its services include tailor-made consultancy services on codes of conduct, system control and staff training, and provision of resource materials.

The Hong Kong Ethics Development Centre launched its Website (http://www.icac.org.hk/hkedc) in November 2001. It serves as a forum for renowned leaders from the business sector to share their insights on practising ethics. It also has an on-line databank of practical and handy reference materials on ethical management. Members of the public can also subscribe to an E-mail Alert service that will keep them posted of new events and services on business ethics promotion of the ICAC.

The Centre is located at 1/F, Tung Wah Mansion, 199-203 Hennessy Road, Wan Chai, Hong Kong
Tel.: 2587 9812
E-mail Address : hkedc@crd.icac.org.hk
6 Effective Monitoring

The four advisory committees to the ICAC and the Commissioner will monitor the matters covered by this performance pledge. The Commissioner will publish the results annually.

7 Where to Go for Further Information

Staff of the ICAC Report Centre and the seven ICAC Regional Offices, who will always identify themselves by name, will be pleased to respond to enquiries concerning this performance pledge and all other aspects of the Commission’s work.

The ICAC Corporate Website (http://www.icac.org.hk) provides the latest news about the Commission. It also gives a brief account of Hong Kong’s history on combating corruption and a general description of the role, structure and power of the ICAC. Furthermore, information on the services provided by the three departments of the Commission, salient facts relating to the anti-bribery legislation, corruption statistics, past major ICAC cases, a databank of press releases and an ICAC’s wanted persons list are available on the Website.
8 Complaints Against ICAC

If you wish to lodge a complaint against the conduct of an ICAC officer or ICAC practices and procedures, please

- write to
  Secretary to the ICAC Complaints Committee,
  Room 521, Central Government Offices, East Wing
  Lower Albert Road,
  Hong Kong
  Tel.: 2810 3503

- phone ICAC Report Centre 2526 6366

- report in person, by phone or in writing to any of the seven ICAC Regional Offices

Reports on the investigation of such complaints will be considered by an independent ICAC Complaints Committee. Complainants will be advised in writing of the outcome of their complaints as soon as possible.
